

The Thing That Made Me Inarticulate

A letter from an interpreter

Dear Gentlemen:

The other day I encountered a wonderful team of the Restoration House, Nikolskoye, since by God's good providence I was invited to help as an interpreter at the 8th annual leadership conference that was hosted by them and took place in Zelenogorsk. I'd like to share with you briefly about what kind of impact that encounter had on me.

together, as by the miraculous work of the Holy Spirit. All the speakers were single-hearted and talked about how to keep on running the race and not to lose heart. Though, that wasn't the main thing that made me inarticulate.

I was so deeply moved by Kent, Todd, Olga Nikolaevna, Zhenya, Sasha and Roma devotedly ministering as a team in that Restoration House. By means of the documentary enlightening the problem of homeless children, every guest of the conference from then on was aware of those youngsters living in basements, attics, in sewerage system etc. and suffering from hunger, abuse,

The conference was very well organized: place, timing, food were excellent. Moreover, the powerful and sincere preaching and teaching, performed by Kent, Todd and Russian pastors, was as if fused various addictions and doing prostitution or begging to make their living. Many of them end up in jail or attempt suicide.

God doesn't leave them there. The documentary gave us the evidence, that through His faithful sons and daughters and the aforementioned team in particular, God makes a difference.

I am not eloquent enough to describe what was happening deep inside of me when I was gradually becoming a more concerned witness of the things displayed. But, the watery eyes of a fragile and muddy girl and the estranged and suspicious eye expression of teenage boys devouring food brought by ministers are still piercing into my heart. Those broken-hearted sons of the almighty God, Kent and Todd, dumbfounded me with their devotion, mercy, care and love for those Russian children, as if they are their own begotten ones. They take care that the weak and helpless have food, clothing, shelter and mentors' advise, support and amazing love of Jesus.

After the video was off people in the conference hall were as if frozen and inarticulate. In that awkward silence I believe God talked into each heart very personally and into my heart also: “Now you know. WHAT would YOU DO?”

After that I saw another miracle and living testimony of God's work in the Restoration House - Ilya - an 18-year-old guy, orphan who used to live on the streets. I don't even remember what he was talking about, but that enormous change in his whole being from death to life astonished me and blessed my heart.

I daresay I was honored to be alongside that precious team even for the short time period of two days, as I believe that it's joyful and such an honor to see and work with the blessed of Father, who inherit the kingdom. For Jesus would say to them: "For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me."

It is such an inspiring thing to see the leader being what Christ told him or her to be - a servant - broken-hearted, authentic, very simple and loving.

To summarize the feedback that I received during and shortly after the leadership conference in Zelenogorsk. All in all people adored what was happening there.

A young married couple highlighted that they liked the continuity of the conferences hosted by Kent and Todd, and the way in which Kent rehearsed the main points they had been talking about at the previous conference (September 2008). People felt the movement of the Holy Ghost and anointing that was also obvious.

One lady of a respectable age shared with me about what she felt concerning preaching and teaching: "It is so simple and so powerful and God is speaking directly into my heart." Many other people testified that they really liked the conference and the opportunity to be together in one spirit. People witnessed that they were receiving something very personal from God.

A young lady from the praise and worship team said that this conference was a good confirmation of the prophecy she had heard and vision she had about Russia being the center of the worldwide spiritual revival. The conference encouraged many to stop thinking about their church as an island. Russian pastors started talking about quitting the practice of division and about all Christian denominations getting united into one Body of Christ.

Of course, that is a kind of fragmentary and amateur feedback, collected by only one person, but I believe God did reveal to each guest personally more than I can imagine or write down.

I bless you, my precious brothers, Kent and Todd, in the name of Jesus Christ, the Savior of the humankind and Lord of the universe and every creature in it, Amen!

Love,
Masha Goryaminskaya.
